

JESSIE NEWS

Fred Radke was a Jessie caller last week.

F. H. Tollefson and wife autoed to Cooperstown, Tuesday.

Miss Caroline Pfeiffer came home from Cooperstown, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Retzlaff were callers in Cooperstown, Monday.

Mrs. Fred Toenberg visited in McHenry between trains, Tuesday.

N. O. Haugen, of McVillage, transacted business in Jessie last week.

H. St. John and wife visited with friends at McVillage Wednesday of last week.

John Hanstad is now located at Jessie, and is employed by Robert Thorn.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Wild spent Sunday with their married children at Sutton.

Frank Pfeiffer and wife and Miss Ellen Pfeiffer were Jessie callers on Thursday.

Fred Fredrickson of Aneta, spent a few hours with Jessie friends, Thursday.

F. E. Rule and Harry St. John attended lodge in Cooperstown, Monday evening.

E. Gallagher, at one time of Jessie, is now traveling for the Minneapolis Woolen Mills.

Christ Clauson and O. A. Ronning were business callers in Jessie last Wednesday.

Mr. Cook, who has been a guest at the Albert Rickford home, returned to his home, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hazard and Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Hazard spent Sunday at the St. John home.

Finn Toenberg was up from Walum Thursday, and went back by auto the following day.

Miss Nettie Johnson, who has been visiting friends in Jessie, returned to her home in Fargo, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham McCulloch and family were entertained at the home of Will McCulloch, Sunday.

Will and John Kuiper, who have been spending a few days with their brother, Fred, left for Chicago, Friday.

F. E. Rule, Al Iverson and Miller Vance were among the crowd who witnessed Cooperstown's defeat at Aneta, Sunday.

B. Grove, of Norway, arrived last week and at present is visiting with his brother, Hans. He expects to be employed by E. L. Watne.

Robert Thorn, Dave Wilcox, Otto Retzlaff, Tice Chandler, Wm. Wilkinson and Wallace McCulloch autoed to Lake Willow, Sunday.

Oscar Rogney drove up Sunday from Cooperstown and took Evangeline home. She had been visiting a few days with friends here.

The Catholic ladies aid society met at the home of Mrs. Max Wild last Thursday, and a large number of ladies were present, who passed a very enjoyable afternoon.

Miss Wilma Dalton was married recently to Mr. White, of Homedale, Idaho. This news comes as a surprise to her many friends in Jessie, and we wish her a long and happy married life.

A party was given at the hotel last Thursday evening in honor of Miss Agnes Anderson, who has been teaching school near here. Miss Anderson left for her home at Alexandria, Minnesota, Saturday.

Jas. Strand left Saturday for his home at Osnabrock. He returned Monday and reports the home folks all well. Jim made the trip by car and says the roads were pretty bad, especially on his return trip.

E. A. Retzlaff spent a few days in Fargo last week, where he obtained medical aid. Mr. Retzlaff has been suffering from a lame back for some time, but, we are glad to say he is somewhat improved.