

JESSIE NEWS

Lewis Berg transacted business in Jessie Monday.

Max Wild was a Cooperstown caller Saturday.

Bernard Pfeifer was a Fargo passenger, Wednesday.

Harry St. John and family autoed to Cooperstown, Sunday.

Adolph Arndt renewed old friendships in Jessie last week.

Miss Irene Reasler returned home from school Friday evening.

Robert Thorn went on a business trip to Cooperstown Tuesday.

Knute Thompson was a Jessie caller Friday, from Cooperstown.

Frank Pfeifer is here visiting his brother, Ben Pfeifer, and ~~family~~.

Col. Mark, of Jamestown, visited with relatives in Jessie last week.

Mrs. F. E. Rule attended lodge at Cooperstown Wednesday night.

J. D. Reid and family of Binford, visited with Jessie relatives on Sunday.

Mrs. George Pratt and children spent Sunday at the Graham McCulloch home.

Jas. McCulloch, of Fargo, spent Wednesday at the Graham McCulloch home.

Juhl Folland went to Cooperstown Monday. He is employed by A. L. Green.

A large crowd of Jessie people attended the ball game at Cooperstown, Sunday.

Catholic church services were held here Sunday and a large congregation attended.

N. O. Haugen and family of McVille, were guests at the St. John home, Tuesday.

C. P. Dahl, Fred Kuiper and Miss Agnes Anderson spent Sunday at the Hemerlin home at Cooperstown.

Otto Retzlaff and wife, and F. E. Rule and wife attended the memorial services in Cooperstown, Sunday.

Maynard Tweed returned home from Minneapolis, Saturday. He has been attending school in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jackson of Sutton, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Jackson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wild.

A large crowd attended the necktie social given at the John Askelson school last Friday evening. Miss Helen teaches this school.

A large, jolly crowd gathered in the Jessie Hall, Saturday evening, and danced until morning. All in attendance report a fine time.

B. Christenson and son, of Bergen, Norway, and J. Nelson, who have been visiting at the Ole L. Anderson departed for Minneapolis Thursday.

Mrs. Norman McCulloch arrived home Tuesday, after spending several months in California. She reports Mr. McCulloch much improved in health, and that he expects to return to Jessie this summer.

John H. Holden, a carpenter of Pekin, has been among those quarantined at the Ben Pfeifer home. He was in Jessie last week and says it feels mighty good to be out again. The Pfeifer family was released from quarantine Tuesday.