

JESSIE NEWS

Dave Sansburn was a visitor in Jessie on Saturday.

C. P. Dahl made a business visit to Fargo Saturday.

The families of Graham McCulloch, Ed Thorn, Robert Thorn, Julius Thorn and N. McCulloch were entertained at the Ralph Manning home Sunday.

James Strand and F. E. Rule attended lodge in Cooperstown Monday.

Carl Arneson transacted business in Jessie Saturday.

Max Wild autoed to Revere Sunday.

E. A. Retzlaff took his daughter, Miss Vivian, to Cooperstown, Sunday, where she is attending school.

Palmer Peterson purchased a very fine cow from the Holstein herd of Edwin Thorn last week.

Bill Arndt visited with relatives in Jessie, Monday.

Miss Irene Ketter returned home from Fargo Friday. She has been quite ill, and will rest up thoroly before going back.

Manley Ressler is here from Fargo for a visit at home

Mr. Blackie, the genial elevator man, transacted business here last week.

Fred Fredrickson, of Aneta, was in town Friday.

John Slabber shipped a car load of hogs to St. Paul, Saturday.

Mrs. Wild visited her daughter at Revere last week.

Mr. Miller of Fargo was a visitor at the Dalrymple home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman McCulloch entertained the families of Graham McCulloch and F. E. Rule last Wednesday evening.

Jack Ressler autoed to Cooperstown Thursday.

Jean Hougen is now employed by Ed Thorn.

The ladies aid society was held at the home of Frank Zimprich Sunday.