

JESSIE NEWS

H. J. Ketter improved the hotel building last week by adding a new storm front.

O. L. Olson returned from Fargo, Saturday, where he has been on business.

Misses Anderson and Bouten returned to Jessie, Saturday, after attending teacher's institute in Cooperstown.

Mrs. Harry St. John and son were Jessie callers, Saturday.

A large number of Jessie people attended the O'Connor speech in Binford last week.

Albert Eidman of Cando, is visiting H. J. Ketter and family, this week.

Jake Egerman was a business caller in Binford Saturday.

Catholic services were conducted here Sunday and Monday.

Bert Parsons, of Cooperstown, was a business caller, Saturday, in our town.

Mrs. E. M. Plumleigh left for Minneapolis, Saturday, where she will visit her son. She has been visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred Rule.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rule and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Retzlaff were Cooperstown visitors Saturday evening.

Alton Dalrymple was confined to the house with a severe cold last week, but is able to be about again.

A. M. Hemerlin of Cooperstown, was a Jessie caller Monday.

Harry St. John and Martin Nelson of Cooperstown, transacted business in Jessie Monday.

Miss Vivian Retzlaff returned to Cooperstown, Saturday, where she will take up her school work.