

JESSIE NEWS

Charles Becherl finished threshing last Thursday.

Colonel Mark was seen in Jessie last Wednesday.

Adolph Arndt was transacting business here last Wednesday.

While cranking his "Lizzie," friend Dave received a black eye.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Egerman and family autoed to Cando last Sunday.

Ole Groven of Cadogan, Alta., is visiting at the Robert Thorn home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ketter were visitors in Cando, returning Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Retzlaff autoed to Cando, Saturday, returning Sunday.

Ole Johnson was here last Tuesday testing Ole Thorn's cattle for the sale.

George Studeville, of Homestead, Oklahoma, is transacting business in Jessie.

F. E. Rule and Jim Strand attended lodge at Cooperstown Monday evening.

Etho Husel was employed by Fred Tollefson in the Great Western elevator last Friday.

Mrs. Otto Retzlaff and Dave Wilcox were transacting business in Cooperstown, Monday.

Mrs. F. E. Rule went to Omaha, Neb., and also points in Iowa, to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Fred Schliness entertained the Catholic ladies aid society Sunday. A very pleasant time was had by all.

Frank Ressler, who has been separator man on Mr. Wilkinson's rig, departed for his home at Waterville, Minnesota, last Friday.

John Dox is having the Ole Vaade house moved to his farm west of Jessie. Roy Flick, of Cooperstown, is moving the buildings.

John Detwiller's separator, while finishing up threshing last Saturday, had a narrow escape from burning, when the interior of the machine caught fire.

Visitors at the J. Egerman home last Sunday were Mrs. Egerman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Berkeley and children, Ben and Vilette, from Cando, and Norman Reid of Granite Falls, Minnesota.