

JESSIE NEWS

Gust Lindgren was a Jessie caller Monday.

C. P. Dahl returned from St. Paul, Tuesday.

Ben Pfeifer came up from Fargo, Friday, returning Saturday.

A. L. Bundy had the misfortune of losing a good horse last week.

N. O. Haugen and wife, of McVille, were Jessie callers, Friday.

Mrs. Harry St. John and son visited with Jessie friends Wednesday.

Mrs. Craham McCulloch and Mrs. Ketter were Binford visitors Sunday.

Mrs. Miller, of Fargo, spent Monday with her daughter, Mrs. Dalrymple.

The Vaade children, of Binford, visited with Einar Bardahl's family last week.

Alton Dalrymple was on the sick list last week, but is much improved at present.

The Misses Irene Ressler, Helen and Irene Ketter motored to Cooperstown, Tuesday.

Lost—on the road between Jessie and Binford, one set of curtains for Reo car. Finder please notify O. E. Retzlaff, Jessie.

Mrs. O. E. Thorn passed away at a Fargo hospital Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock. The funeral will be held from the home Thursday at about 1:30 and at West Prairie church later.

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Benson and two sons, Leroy and Harold, of Lanesboro, Minnesota, and Martin Stonedahl, of Syre, Minnesota, are visiting at the Ole L. Anderson home. Mrs. Benson is a sister of Mrs. Anderson.

After the threshing machine had been moved from Ben Pfeifer's farm last week, the ashes left by the engine were fanned into flame by the powerful wind and before the blaze could be extinguished, several bundles and a straw stack were burned. No damage to buildings was done, however.

Theodore Becherl was badly hurt last week, when his father, Chas. Becherl, drove their auto through a wire gate, which cut the boy badly, sixteen stitches being taken in his leg. The gate was ordinarily left open, but in the dusk of evening and rain on the wind shield, Mr. Becherl did not notice that the gate was closed. We are glad to note that Theodore is getting on as well as can be expected.