

JESSIE NEWS

C. P. Dahl took a trip to St. Paul last Saturday.

Arne Arneson is hauling grain to Jessie this week.

Harry St. John was a Jessie caller on Tuesday.

Chris Clauson hauled his grain to Jessie last week.

Miss Inez Hemerlin visited at the home of Lee Green last week.

Miss Mae Bouten spent the week end at her home at Valley City.

A. M. Hemerlin, of Cooperstown, was a caller in our town Friday.

Mrs. Fitzgerald, of Jamestown, is visiting at the Fred Tollefson home.

N. O. Haugen, of McVille, transacted business in Jessie, Thursday.

Miss Grace Wogsland, of Walum, called on Jessie friends last week.

The dance given last Saturday night was well attended and all report a good time.

Manley Ressler is visiting with his parents this week. He is now employed by the N. P.

Mrs. John Detwiller and Miss T. E. Regner of Cooperstown, were guests of Mrs. Otto Retzlaff last Friday.

Mrs. Wm. Wilkinson died in Fargo, last Friday, of cancer. The funeral was held in Cooperstown on Monday.

R. M. Cowen, of Red Willow lake, was in Jessie Thursday advertising his sale which will be held Tuesday, October 5th.

Mrs. Miller returned to her home in Fargo, Wednesday. She has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Dalrymple.

Mrs. Ketter and Mrs. Emil Retzlaff motored to Cooperstown Friday. Mrs. Ketter's baby has been ailing of late and she went to consult a doctor.

Mrs. Robert Thorn entertained the Lutheran Ladies Aid society last Thursday, and a large number of ladies attended. Among those who came from out of town were Mrs. Lewis Berg, Mrs. Oscar Rogney, Mrs. Harry St. John, Mrs. A. M. Hemerlin and Mrs. Udegard of Cooperstown, and Mrs. Julius Thorn and Miss Josie Thingelstad of Binford.

A very happy surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. Ben Pfeifer, last Sunday afternoon. About one hundred and fifty guests were present, and in token of their friendship gave the Pfeifers a beautiful clock. Mr. and Mrs. Pfeifer have lived on their farm near Jessie the past eight years and it is with much regret we contemplate their departure. They left Tuesday for Fargo where they have purchased a beautiful home. The best wishes of their many Jessie friends go with them.