

JESSIE NEWS

W. H. Mark is a Jessie caller this week.

Fred Rule was a Binford visitor Friday.

Carl Arneson was a Jessie caller, Friday.

Ben Pfeifer returned from Fargo Sunday.

Otto Retzlaff and family spent Sunday at Red Willow lake.

W. J. Dalton, of McHenry, was seen on our streets Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. McCulloch and daughter were visitors in Jessie Saturday.

Mrs. Bonnewell, of Cooperstown, is visiting at the O. L. Anderson home.

Harry Johnson and Wm. Vander-vest departed for Duluth, Thursday.

Mrs. Norman McCulloch spent Sunday in Cooperstown, visiting friends.

Miss Irene Ressler is renewing her school work in Cooperstown this week.

Catholic services were held in Jessie, Sunday, and a large attendance is reported.

Miss Berenice Emerson arrived Saturday for a visit at the A. Dalrymple home.

Thos. Thorn, who had visited his brother, Ole Thorn, left for Minneapolis, Monday.

Miss Irene Ketter left for Fargo, Monday, where she will enter Sacred Heart academy.

Carl Arneson left for Binford on Monday where he has accepted a position in the garage.

C. P. Dahl went to Cooperstown, Wednesday, to consult with doctors as he has been in poor health of late.

Leonard Olson, of Barronett, Wisconsin, returned home Monday. He has been visiting at the John Hagan home.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Tollefson arrived last week and expect to stay for some time. They will occupy the rooms over the meat market.

Emil Kuntz has rented the Ben Pfeifer farm for the coming year, and Ed Ressler will move on to the farm which Mr. Kuntz now occupies.

Miss Mae Bouten arrived Monday in time to take up her school work Tuesday morning. Miss Ovidia Anderson will teach the lower grades.

Mrs. Mat Pauser, who has been spending a few weeks with her son and daughter here, returned to Minnesota, Monday. Mrs. Pauser is so well impressed with Griggs county that she contemplates selling out in Minnesota and move here.