

There was no school Friday forenoon on account of the severity of the weather but the building was warmed up sufficiently for work to be resumed in the afternoon.