

The Times failed to mention the departure last week of Sunvis Johnson, who will make his future home at Peking. He has become associated with another carpenter at that place and will assume the contracting business of O. S. Houge.

M. M. Quinby entertained a