

In spite of the rainy weather that prevailed Saturday evening, quite a number of people gathered at the Armus school to attend the program given for the benefit of the Junior Red Cross. Lunch and candy were sold bringing in about $9.00. The pony donated to the Red Cross by Gilbert Grigsby, was raffled off and the lucky number held by Paul Adrian who got the pony. Sixty-one tickets had been sold, and the money given to the Red Cross for supplies.
