

Mrs. Ole Alfson and Mrs. George Olstad entertained a number of young folks at a prettily appointed six o'clock dinner on Easter Sunday. The occasion was a farewell party in honor of Alfred Alfson who left the next day for Montana. The guests numbered about sixteen, who spent a most enjoyable evening in playing games and listening to an impromptu program of musical selections.

---