

Falls today.

Alfred Alfson returned from Galata, Montana, where he has been since early spring. Alfred states that crops in that part of the state are a total failure, even the hay crop being very poor. Stock raisers have been forced to ship their stock east into this state for feed or have sold them. Many of the farmers and farm laborers are coming to North Dakota to work during the harvest and threshing seasons.

The Griggs County fair last week