

lunch will be served at 9 o'clock.

Oscar Alm arrived home last week having recently received his honorable discharge from service with the Marines. He had been stationed at Haiti, in the West Indies, where his company was sent to rout out the outlaws that infest the island. Oscar is looking fine, and, like the rest of the boys, is mighty glad to be home again.

---