

curate bookkeeping, etc.

Hans Amlie was honorably discharged from service and arrived home Monday. Mr. Amlie has been in the army nearly two years but didn't go across until about the time the armistice was signed, when he was sent right back to the States, after staying in Brest a couple of days.