

cy.

C. O. Arneson and family have moved in from the farm, and have taken residence quarters at the hotel for the winter, no houses being available in town for rent.

An exciting game of football was