

An impromptu dancing party was held at the opera house, Saturday night, as a farwell to Olaf Bakke and Roy Iverson, who were to go to camp, Monday. They reported that day at Cooperstown, but owing to the fact that peace is declared, the boys were not sent to camp but returned home Tuesday.