

While cranking her car Sunday evening, Mrs. Ole Bakken had the misfortune to receive a broked arm as a result of [the engine back firing. Two bones were broken above the wrist of the right arm. Dr. Truscott set the broken members, which are knitting together nicely.