

a sum of money.

Little Oliver Bakken was taken suddenly sick last Thursday and was taken to Valley City late that night in an automobile, for treatment in a hospital. It was feared that an operation would be necessary, but his condition gradually grew better, returning home on Saturday practically recovered. The little fellow was suffering from a rupture.

Dr. W. Gustafson, the romantic