

however.

Theodore Becherl was badly hurt last week, when his father, Chas. Becherl, drove their auto through a wire gate, which cut the boy badly, sixteen stitches being taken in his leg. The gate was ordinarily left open, but in the dusk of evening and rain on the wind shield, Mr. Becherl did not notice that the gate was closed. We are glad to note that Theodore is getting on as well as can be expected.

---