

July 4th was observed this year by Binford people at different places. Finley and the river picnic had a goodly crowd of our people. Some went to the lake to picnic, while others preferred to stay at home and enjoyed a quiet day of rest.