

Over fifty couples enjoyed the hospitality of the ex-service men at the Legion dance Friday evening, and everybody present had a good time. The hall was nicely and appropriately decorated with large flags, and red, white and blue streamers. A special feature pulled off during the evening was a grand march in which the soldier boys and their partners participated.

Did you know of hot and sunny