

A post of the American Legion will be organized in Binford and all service men are asked to meet tomorrow (Friday) evening at the office of Thompson Yards. Sufficient applicants have signed already to get the charter, while there are several more boys ready to join.

Winter seems to have set in in