

money will be doing double duty.

An effort will be made to revive some interest in a band again, and next Monday evening all interested are requested to meet at the opera house to talk things over. The members of the Willow band have expressed a willingness to join with the town boys, and with their support a good-sized organization can be formed. Come to the meeting Monday evening and bring your instruments with you.

Local Manager, Herman Oren, is