

passed merrily on.

An enthusiastic band meeting was held Monday evening when the Willow band met with the old remaining members of the Binford band, and organized a joint organization. An election of officers was held and the following elected: President, J. J. Herlick; vice president, Wm. Adrian; secretary and treasurer, Elmer Krogfoss; director, Paul Adrian. A committee was appointed to bring in new members. The next rehearsal will be held Monday evening.

The second band rehearsal will be held Monday evening.