The Binford base ball team was a dismal failure in the games at the tournament at Hatton last Friday and Saturday. There is some consolation, however, that Griggs county won two prizes—Cooperstown taking first money and Binford the booby prize. Our first game against Drayton, was lost by a 7-4 score. The second game against Cooperstown was also a defeat for our boys by a 11-5 count. In each of these games Binford pulled enough errors and boners to dampen the ardor of base ball fan. Since the tournament, the home boys seem to be carrying around the same old jinx. Sunday, at Cooperstown, they lost by a 9-8 score and again last evening by 11-8. Next Sunday, at Red Willow lake, Binford will play its last game of the season, against Cooperstown.
