

Locals Take Double Bill

son flew to Peterson. Nothing doing in the eighth. Staffney lead off the ninth with a two-bagger for Hanford's first safe blow. Slyter struck out for the third time. Then Dougherty brought Staffney home with a two-bagger, and then scored on Besse's low throw to first to catch Russell. Thoreson walked, Olson struck out and Widstrom flew to Marotta for the last put out.

Olson scored Binford's first run in the third. He hit safely and took second on a passed ball. Besse advanced him to third on a bunt, and crossed the plate when Widstrom erred on A. Ringlee's roller. The fifth inning started with a rush. Olson again led off with a three-bagger, which would have been good for a circuit had the ball not struck a fencepost and bounded back into the field. Besse, next up, was out at first. Russell to Olson. A. Ringlee flew out to Thoreson. Olson's failure to get back on third on this fly and score, lost Binford a run.

A fusillade of safe hits in the eighth gave Binford four runs. A. Ringlee started the fireworks with a safe one, Alm got on by Thoreson's error. Ehlers, Marotta, Peterson, E. Ringlee and Alfson followed with safe ones, pushing the runs over.

The summary:—Struck out by Besse, 15, by Russell, 6; hits off Besse, 2, off Russell 9; base on balls, off Besse 2, hit by pitched ball by Besse 1, stolen bases, Dougherty; three base hit, Olson; two-base hits, Staffney, Dougherty.

The Cooper Game

Cooperstown scored in the first inning on Slyter's walk and hits by B. Nelson and Jones, and again in the eighth. Slyter hit safe, B. Nelson followed with another, and Slyter scored when Alfson threw wild to catch Jones at first.

The locals tallied two in the third. Alm was given first on the pitcher's throw to catch him at that base, Ehlers flew out to center, Dougherty hit to left and Opheim erred, advancing Alm to third and Dougherty landing on second. Both scored when LaPlint stumbled on Peterson's fly ball to right.

The winning run was counted in the fourth when Ehlers and Dougherty hit for two extra base hits, Ehlers scoring.

The summary:—Struck out, by Kingsley 13, by Nelson 2, by Johnson 5; base on balls, off Kingsley 6, off Nelson 3, off Johnson 1; hit by pitched ball, Johnson.

Last Thursday's game with Sutton was called in the fourth inning on account of rain, with the score of 2-0 in Binford's favor.

Tuesday's game with Aneta was cancelled because of rain.
