

---

Damn 'Em—Wait 'Til Next Year.

Sentinel-Courier: In the ball game between Binford and Cooperstown at Hatton last week, "Irish," of the Binford club, overcome by the infirmities of age, tried in vain to connect with the sharp breaks of Cooperstown hurlers, dropped a couple of nice ones in center field, and then quit the game in disgust. The last seen of him he was headed east in his Grant Six. He must have wandered far afield, as he did not return to take part in the Binford-Cooperstown game here Sunday when the former received another trimming at the hands of the locals.

---