

his trip to camp.

A basement is being dug under the First National bank, to provide for a furnace to take the place of the hard coal burners, which have proven very unsatisfactory in heating the building. Another reason for this change is that soft coal or lignite may be utilized for heating, thereby complying with the request of the government to conserve its supply of anthracite.

L. D. L... county food admin