

hostess many happy returns.

The stockholders of the First State bank held their annual meeting on Tuesday afternoon. All were present with the exception of Wm. Lucht. The business of the past year was very gratifying to the stockholders. The surplus fund was raised to $5,000, and all the former officers and directors were re-elected.

The next has been chosen and re-