

Notice

All those who are planning on installing electric motors are requested to consult Mr. Wrightson before Monday noon, June 16, in order to ascertain how much additional current will be used so that proper equipment can be installed to handle the extra load. If sufficient guarantees from persons who will use electrical power can be secured to warrant the installation of another large unit, it will be done, otherwise it will not.—Binford Light & Power Co.
