

O. D. Freer has moved his barber shop fixtures to his new location in the front of the opera house, where the barber business will be continued in connection with the pool hall. Hanson & Freer are enjoying a fine patronage in their line of business, both in the pool room and the movie house. They have named their theater the "Lyric."