

at Syverson's store.

The exterior of Newgard's studio has been completed this week, with a finish of stucco, giving that building a very pleasing effect and adding much to the general appearance of that block. Mr. Newgard is now comfortably settled in his new quarters, and both he and Mrs. Newgard are having their hands full attending to the business.

I. H. Sampson and C. E. Thayer.