

France.

W. A. Zuill, construction superintendent for the Thompson Yards, who has been in Binford for the past two months, superintending the work of constructing their new lumber plant, left Wednesday for his home at St. Paul, having completed his duties here. "Dad" is a congenial old soul, and even though his stay in Binford was short, he made many warm friends who regret his departure.