

struments with you.

Local Manager Herman Osen is now comfortably settled in his new office at the Thompson Yards—and Herman just naturally doesn't know how to act in his new quarters, so different from the old. The wood work is finished in flat oak fumed, the walls in cream and the ceiling in a stone color. New office furniture harmonizing with the wood work, has been installed.

Dinford was bubbling over with a