A. S. Alfson has been appointed census enumerator for the village of Binford, and the townships of Addie, Clearfield and Kingsley. Mr. Alfson is already on the job counting noses, and he requests that all persons who will be leaving home for any length of time to see him before they leave, so they will not be missed in the enumeration.