“ 'Twixt Love and Money,' ” the play put on at the opera house last Friday evening, by local Thespians, drew a packed house and from all accounts the high standard of these home-talent productions has been maintained. This play was, perhaps, one of the heaviest presented by the Dramatic club, and each character performed his or her part in a creditable manner—if you'll pardon a little egotism by the Times scribe. The receipts amounted to $102.90. After deducting all expenses a check for $45 has been sent to W. H. Butler, of Cooperstown, county chairman for the Y. M. C. A.
