

and directors were re-elected.

The cast has been chosen and rehearsals are under way for the first play to be presented by the Binford Dramatic club this winter. The play chosen is entitled "Twixt Love and Money," a drama in four acts. Those taking part are all local people, and they hope to be able to give the show some time in February.

---