

which benefited him very much.

The free tractor school given under the auspices of Hammer-Thingelstad Co., Monday and Tuesday was very well attended. Instruction in the use of tractors for farm work was given by experts in this line. The school is a fine institution, and of great benefit to the farmer boys as the tractor is coming to be more and more the power to be used on the farms.