

The farmers' institute meetings held Tuesday and Wednesday were quite well attended. Owing to illness some members of the corps were unable to be present and substitutions were made for others. Interesting and instructive talks were given on dairying, crop rotation, silos and ensilage, poultry and live stock.