

COMMUNITY PROGRAMS

Southern Belles and George Wilson
Will Appear in Three Programs Next Week.

Next Wednesday evening, Thursday afternoon and Thursday evening in the Binford opera house, will be given three double number entertainments. Each of the three programs will consist of a musical program and a lecture. This series of entertainments promise to be among the best that have ever been given here and everyone should attend. The price has been made so low that everybody may attend. Family tickets for the balance of the course, consisting of nine entertainments, are selling now for $4.50. Single admissions to any of the programs will be 50 cents.

The entertainments to be given next week consists of a musical program by the Southern Belles, a ladies' quartette in both instrumental and vocal selections, and Hon. Geo. Wilson, a noted lecturer, who will deliver the addresses. Each of the three programs will be well worth making a strenuous effort to attend.

Bear the dates in mind and don't fail to attend, Wednesday and Thursday, Dec. 10 and 11.
