

The Horton Motor Company caravan composed of four trucks and two touring cars arrived in Binford last Friday. The troupe is making a tour of the state, demonstrating the Chalmers-Maxwell car, and according to reports are meeting big crowds at every stop. They have several of these cars with the bodies cut down showing the working parts of the car mounted on trucks. The trip is also undertaken to promote the "ship by truck" idea.