

In commemoration of the hundredth anniversary of the I. O. O. F. lodge, which was organized in America, April 26, 1819, the local lodge held services at the opera house Sunday afternoon. Following the entrance of "Independent Order of Odd Fellows" and "Daughters of Rebekah, the program commenced with a song by three young ladies. Mr. Lewis then introduced the speaker, Rev. Bennett of Cooperstown, who delivered a very interesting discourse. Another song followed, by five young people and the program ended with prayer.
