

The I. O. O. F. dance Monday evening proved, as usual, the big social event of the season. The floor was crowded with merrymakers, many of whom came from the neighboring towns, and all entered into the enjoyment with a will which seemed to conclude the festivities altogether too soon. The number of the Binford lodge being 77, it becomes quite a coincidence that that number of tickets were sold.