

damage to telephone property, several of the rural lines being put out of commission temporarily. Again yesterday evening we had another soaker which put a stop to further farm work this week, unless the sun gets on duty soon. The excessive moisture will undoubtedly cause some harm to the grain, and the delaying of work on the fields will also prove costly especially this season when help is so scarce.

---