

The young people of the Lutheran Free church gave an interesting program of songs, carols, and readings at the Christmas tree festival held in the church Sunday evening. Distribution of gifts concluded the evenings entertainment.