

The McHenry Dramatic club presented their play, "Engaged", to a large and appreciative audience here Tuesday evening. The show was good, and the members of the cast are to be complimented on the way they put it on. Their parts were well learned and the acting well done. The evening closed with a dance.

A large number of relatives and