

GOOD PROGRAM FOR NEXT WEEK

Last of Community Numbers Will Be Held in Opera House Next
Monday and Tuesday.

The fourth and final number of the Community programs for this season is billed for the opera house, in Binford, Monday and Tuesday, of next week June 9th and 10th.

The advance representative of the Federated Community association of Fargo was here the first of the week arranging the dates, advertising etc. The Southern Belles, a company of talented young ladies comprise the entertainment troupe. This company played and sang at the Y. M. C. A. cantonments in the south, and were contracted for a return engagement. They are all professional singers and players and come very highly recommended by the association.

Mr. Geo. Wilson, for several years connected with the agriculture extension work in Oklahoma, is the lecturer with the entertainment company. In towns where he has appeared on community programs he has received some splendid notices, and his message will prove of special interest to all.

The programs will be given in the opera house Monday evening, commencing at 9 o'clock; Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 and Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. The pupils of the 7th, 8th, and high school grades will be admitted free to the afternoon program as guests of the Federated community association.

The local business men have agreed to mail special invitations and supply complimentary tickets to the farmers and their families to attend the afternoon program on Monday. Anyone not receiving their ticket through the mails is requested to come and they will be admitted by the person in charge at the door.

The prices of admission will be 15 and 35 cents, including war tax. Remember the dates and let's all go.
