

The third number of the Community programs was given here this week. The first night opened with a large crowd attending. Dr. Ostensacken was the lecturer and gave a very interesting discourse on community spirit and co-operation at each session. The quartette pleased the audiences with songs, readings and instrumental selections. The next numbers will be held probably some time in June.

---