

There will be a dance given after the play "The Pride of Virginia" tomorrow (Friday) night. The ladies will serve supper, and the combined receipts for the evening will go to buy Red Cross supplies for the home chapter. While you are enjoying a full evening's entertainment your money will be doing double duty.

An effort will be made to revive